COURSE GOALS:

- To use inquiry methods of observation, research, and experimentation to explore unfamiliar subjects through art-making.
- To experiment, plan, and make multiple works of art that explore personally meaningful themes, ideas, and/or concepts.
- To analyze, select, and critique personal artworks for shows, exhibits, and a final portfolio.
- To begin to develop an artistic identity through artful experimentation, triumphs, failures, collaboration, and personal interests.

SUPPLY LIST:

The following should be brought to class EVERY DAY or kept in your cubby.

- Sketchbook
- Pencil
- Chromebook

RULES:

1. You can do anything you want in this class, provided it does not cause a problem for anyone else.
2. Student may have cell phone out but it should be put away while instruction is taking place.
3. No airpods in your ears while instruction is taking place.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Manage your own time, materials & artworks
- Practice open-mindedness, be open to trial & error.
- Ask for help (peers first, then teacher)
- Use all tools and materials responsibly and safely.
- Clean up after yourself, take initiative to keep our classroom clean.
- Go big or go home!
- PLAY!

LATE WORK:

All work (exercises, projects, homework) is expected to be turned in by the deadline. For any unit project turned in past the deadline, 20% will be deducted prior to grading. Each student will be provided with one "late pass" per semester. This pass entitles you to turn in one assignment past the deadline and still receive full credit up until the end of the semester. If you do not use your late pass, you may trade it in at the end of the semester for 2 extra credit points on your final exam.

GRADING SCALE:

A = 89.5 - 100
B = 79.5 - 89.4
C = 69.5% - 79.4
D = 59.5 - 69.4
F = 0 - 59.4
